Read about Molly Lamb Bobak (https://valourcanada.ca/military-history-library/molly-lamb-bobak/) on Valour Canada's military history library online then answer the following:

For young learners (Grades 4 to 7)

1. What year did Prime Minister Mackenzie King approve the creation of the Canadian War Records?
2. Look at Bobak's painting Remembrance Day in the article. What was she depicting? What do the colours signify?
3. What was the Canadian War Records program intended to do? Why was it important to capture the war through artistic means?
4. List Bobak's jobs prior to her appointment as the first Canadian female war artist.
5. Think of an event that has occurred in your community. Sketch an image, black and white or with colours, that tells the story of that event.

For advanced learners (Grade 8 and up)

6. Read some of Bobak's diary online at Library Archives Canada. Jot down your impressions of her personal work.
7. For the next week, keep a diary in the style of Bobak's. Draw, write, and colour your creation. At the end of the week, share your thoughts on keeping a diary. Is it therapeutic? Is it a waste of time? Share your thoughts in bullet points.
