

Educational Resources

Canadian Military History
Grade 4 and up

Star Trek's "Scotty" on D-Day

Read about "Scotty" on D-Day (https://valourcanada.ca/military-history-library/star-treks-scotty-on-dday/) on Valour Canada's military history library online then answer the following:

For young learners (Grades 4 to 7)

1. What was "Scotty's" real name? Which Canadian regiment and division did Scotty land on the beaches of Juno with?
2. On 6 June 1944, the Canadians, Americans, and British landed on six beaches. What were they?
3. Define the word "materiel". Why was it important for materiel to reach the Allies in Europe?
4. Create a timeline showing Doohan's career with the military, the CBC, and Star Trek.

For advanced learners (Grade 8 and up)

5. Research other Canadian actors/actresses who participated in the Second World War. Write a mini biography of one you find interesting.
6. Research the landings on D-Day and write a paragraph from the perspective of a Canadian soldier. Describe the environment, the importance of the mission, and any fears you may have. What emotions do you feel?